

Ceramic Glaze is a layer or coating of a substance which has been fused to the ceramic art by the firing process. Glazes can also be used to decorate and color or even waterproof art.

Glazing is important because it renders earthenware suitable for holding water and other liquids by sealing the porous unglazed biscuit.

Glazed Dark Horse

